7:45am - 9:45am

7:45am - Check-in and networking

8:30am - program begins

Mark Gantt is the Executive Producer and star of Sony Pictures Television's web series, THE BANNEN WAY, which is financed by Sony's Crackle distribution arm and has broken records with over 14 million views, won 4 Streamy Awards including Best Actor (Mark), Best Drama, Best Director and was nominated for 2 Webby Awards. Due to its vast success, Sony Pictures Television is currently developing the project into a TV series. An experienced short film maker and actor, Mark will share insight about his experience in creating material for the web and activating your career as an actor.

Writers Boot Camp helps writers and creative collaborators reach the highest levels of the industry by teaching a comprehensive full-development process and professional approach that leads writers to becoming the authority of their own work. We present to our community the people who truly know the business. Join us every other Wednesday at our Bergamot Station headquarters to network and to learn where the work is in the entertainment industry.
